THE CHINESE MAIL.
THIS paper is now issued every day.
The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction.
The chief object of the paper is of course
derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the quaranters and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,
from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented
by the Chinese, consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusual, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in tendency—is almost limitless. It on the one hand comprehends Chinese belief and interest,
while on the other it deserves every aid
that can be given to it by foreigners.
Like English journals it contains Editorials
with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history and literature, has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It is filled with many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give critical embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward to the Editor, at the China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, Imperial Customs, and other official bodies, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Dr. Chalmers, E. H. Parker, Maclellan, H. H. Parker, Stent, Phillips, Maclellan, Groot, Jamieson, E. H. Parker, Maclellan, H. H. Parker, Stent, Phillips, Maclellan, Groot, Jamieson, E. H. Parker, Maclellan, H. H. Parker, Stent, Phillips, Maclellan, Groot, Jamieson.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance. Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

"The China Review *** has an excellent table of contents."—Celestial Empire.

"The Publications of this Review are subjects of interest to all students of the Far East, and the present issue will hold favourably if not advantageously comparison, with preceding numbers."—Colonial Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."—North-China Herald.

"The present number of this periodical, *** is one with a review of the Foreign Trade of China during 1880. This is rather a new departure for a publication which professes to be purely literary; but considering the comparatively small circulation it enjoys at present among the commercial communities of China, we hail the innovation as likely to recommend the Review to the notice of those who take an interest in far western beyond mercantile pursuits."—North-China Herald.

"A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize."—Chrysanthemum.

"The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on 'The Testament in Chinese' is a treatise of a question that necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries."—Mr. E. H. Parker's 'Short Journeys in Szechuen' are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Ballou contributes a paper on some of the 'Notes on the Province of Cheung, founder of the Chinese Empire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which 'On Chinese Customs in Western Borneo and Java,' will be glad to notice. The paper under a separate heading, complete the number."—Daily Press.

Trainer's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:—The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, so say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs, the missionaries, and the many who are so assiduously cultivating, and who are so generally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are included by both accuracy and freshness of style and in account of the career of the Chinese post-officers of the nineteenth century. Mr. Yung-Po, by Mr. E. H. Parker, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, it carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that Notes and Queries are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the East, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.

Visitors' Column.

We have instituted as an experiment a VISITORS' COLUMN, which we trust will prove successful, and be found useful. To it will be relegated from time to time such items of information, lists, tables and other intelligence as is considered likely to prove valuable to persons passing through the City, and in connection with we have opened a SELECT HOTEL AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY, applications for enrolment into which we are now ready to receive.
